San Clemente Cove Chronicle

April 2014

It feels so great to be a winner!

The San Clemente Cove has been awarded the prestigious "Resort of the Year" honor for 2013, making us the overall champion among 20 Grand Pacific-managed resorts. One of the key factors to this outstanding recognition is you – the Owner Satisfaction scores at San Clemente Cove were the highest in the company! As your Resort Manager, I take special pride in knowing that our commitment to your satisfaction is not only recognized, that it sets the bar for other resorts to ascend to.

The San Clemente Cove was graded on such metrics as its financial performance, overall management, maintenance of the property, and guest satisfaction surveys. These benchmarks are critical assessments that quickly define a resort's quality.

One of the foundations for San Clemente Cove being justifiably honored is the dedication and foresight of your Board of Directors. I am in frequent contact with them. They truly care about the Cove and are involved in the resort's operation, keeping a close eye on the details. I personally congratulate each and every member of the SCC Team, our dedicated Board Members - Sam Harris, Eric Siegel, Charles Funderburk, Charlie Stevenson and Chuck Munzert, and my fellow members of the management team for enabling San Clemente Cove to win this honor. Thank you all!

Looking good!

We are more than halfway through painting the interior units. This project is moving along as planned and has caused minimal impact to Owners and Guests. Many visitors have commented on the new look, with the typical reaction being they really like how cheerful the units are now with the new paint and accessories.

What's going on around town

Spring may have just arrived on the calendar; however, those who know San Clemente understand that summer and its myriad of outdoor activities are already under way. The artist among you will want to stroll around town to check out the prominent artists competing in the 13th annual Paint San Clemente competition that runs June 14 to 21. The centerpiece of the celebration is the 12th annual Plein air painting competition that will amaze you as artists produce masterpieces right before your eyes. Proceeds from this event fund local school art programs. Check out www.paintsanclemente.com for more info.

For those of you who would rather listen than watch, check out some of the finest barbershop harmonies you may ever hear in nearby San Juan Capistrano. Members of the International Barbershop Harmony Society gather at 7 p.m. Mondays at 119 N. Avenida de la Estrella, just north of the Cove, to perfect their four-part harmony. Between 20 and 40 singers will be there on any given Monday.

While visiting our friendly neighbor to the north, you will not want to miss the 50 or more talented artisans, craft people and performers who gather for the Second Saturday Art Fair. Upcoming shows, which run from March through December, are May 10, June 14, July 12 and Aug. 9.
