March 2015

Hello Red Wolf Lodge at Squaw Valley Owners,

Finally, some snow!

The snow dance has paid off. With January being the 7th driest on record and no snow since December 24th, the 4 days of continuous snow prior to the President's Week was a welcome sight for all. The storm dropped 2+ feet allowing Squaw Valley and Alpine Meadows to open back up most of the terrain that has been inaccessible for much of the winter season including Granite Chief and Headwall.

2014 Highlights

Red Wolf Lodge would again like to thank all of you for your continued support. 2014 was an outstanding year for the resort. A number of improvements were made, a couple of which include new carpet in every room as well as new sleeper sofas. In addition, Red Wolf Lodge has again been awarded the RCI Gold Crown distinction as well as Interval International's Premier status. Red Wolf continues to be ranked #1 on Trip Advisor for all resorts in Olympic Valley. Financially, the resort had another successful year allowing for all the great improvements throughout. The teams' focus again for 2015 is to enhance your home away from home by enriching lives through extraordinary experiences.

Congratulations to Marta Sanchez De Frutos, our 2014 Associate of the Year!

Each February, Grand Pacific Resorts hosts the Associates of the Year gala celebrating the best of the best. The dinner honors those associates who have shown exemplary work product throughout the year. Marta, who many of you have known for years, has been with the Red Wolf Lodge for 23 years. Marta is an integral part of the resort and keeps the heart of the house organized and working as a team. Her attention to detail while turning rooms in a timely manner is evidenced by the Gold Crown scores in Housekeeping year after year. Be sure to congratulate Marta during your next visit!

Sincerely,

Greg Veal
